Date: May 20, 2024

Dear Parents,

IIS, Jeddah is introducing the 'Global Citizenship Schools (GCS) Program' for the students of Grades VII to IX. The program will be available online during July-August (Summer Vacation 2024), spanning eight weeks. Please review the information provided. If you'd like your ward to participate, complete the Letter of Consent and return it to the respective class teacher by Thursday, May 30, 2024.

The GCS Program is a fully funded initiative by the Global Citizenship Foundation in partnership with UNESCO MGIEP (Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Education for Peace and Sustainable Development). Its goal is to equip schools with the necessary resources and support to empower students as active and engaged global citizens.

The GCS Program equips educators with the resources to deliver a unique eight-week online Global Citizenship Course, designed by UNESCO MGIEP for learners in the age group of 12-17 years. This flexible and engaging curriculum fosters critical thinking, empathy, mindfulness, and global awareness – preparing your children to be the responsible leaders of tomorrow.

What do you get?

- Earn a course completion certificate from UNESCO MGIEP.
- Access to comprehensive Global Citizenship Schools Navigator and Toolkit.
- A completely self-paced course available for two months.
- Program Management Tool to track team progress.
- The school profile is listed on the Special Project Website as a school fostering global citizenship.
- Invitations to various events hosted by the Global Citizenship Foundation.

About the Global Citizenship Course for Learners

- The Global Citizenship course is UNESCO MGIEP's digital, self-paced, and interactive course for learners in the age group of 12 to 17 years. It aims to nurture Global Citizens who can help the world become a kinder, more peaceful, and sustainable planet for all animals, plants, and humans.
- The course centers on contemporary global issues, with a focus on Global Citizenship. It is designed to enhance the learners' competencies of Empathy, Mindfulness, Compassion, and Critical Inquiry, alongside the learner understands of global citizenship themes.
- Themes include Freedom, Human Migration, Governance, Citizenship Rights and Duties, Identity and Stereotypes, Violence and ways to navigate it.

Learning Objectives

- Understand the processes of critical inquiry and using the processes in service of global citizenship.
- Develop an understanding of mindfulness, empathy, and compassion, and use these as tools to enhance one's emotional well-being and social relationships.
