Subject: Availability of IISJ Parent Grievance Form on School Website

Dear Parents,

We are pleased to inform you that the IISJ Parent Grievance Form is now available on our school website. At IISJ, we highly value open communication and are committed to addressing any concerns or grievances you may have.

This form has been created to facilitate the efficient collection of important details related to your complaints, ensuring that we can review and respond in a timely and in an appropriate manner. We request you to provide clear and accurate information, as this will help us resolve the issues effectively.

The IISJ Parent Grievance Form is a key part of our effort to enhance our school's overall functioning and create a supportive environment for both students and parents. You can access the form through the following link: Parent Grievance Form.

Please be advised that anonymous emails raising grievances against the school or any staff member will not be entertained.

Thank you for your continued trust and support.
